Editorial

Dear readers,

It is with great pleasure that we introduce the Journal of Domestic Animal Practice and Research. Our journal is dedicated to publishing high-quality manuscripts covering all disciplines of veterinary medicine in all species. We welcome reviews, original research, short communication, and case reports that contribute to the advancement of veterinary science.

At the Journal of Domestic Animal Practice and Research, we are committed to publishing manuscripts on merit. All submissions undergo a rigorous peer-review process to ensure that only the highest quality research is published. Our editorial board members are an array of professionals from different disciplines of veterinary science, ensuring that all manuscripts are reviewed by experts in the relevant field.

We believe that our journal will be a valuable resource for researchers, practitioners, and students in the field of veterinary medicine. Our goal is to provide a platform for the dissemination of cutting-edge research and innovative ideas that will advance the field of veterinary science.

We invite you to submit your manuscripts to the Journal of Domestic Animal Practice and Research and join us in our mission to advance the field of veterinary medicine.

Sincerely,
